"What I hope this film will do, when it is finished, is remind people how much our nation and our world lost when President Kennedy died, and to ask anew what might have happened and why."

The Washington Post

Sunday, June 2, 1991